

Responsible Gaming Policy

Supersize

At Supersize, Inc., we are committed to promoting responsible gaming practices and ensuring the well-being of our users. Although skill-based real-money gaming is legally different from gambling, and skill is the determining factor in outcomes, individuals may find themselves unable to play responsibly. We recognize that gaming should be an enjoyable and entertaining experience, and it is our responsibility to support our users in making informed choices about their gaming habits. To uphold this commitment, we have implemented the following Responsible Gaming Policy:

Video Game Addiction

IMPORTANT HEALTH AND GAMEPLAY NOTICE

Playing Responsibly

Video games are intended for entertainment and should be enjoyed as part of a balanced lifestyle. However, excessive or compulsive gaming can lead to negative effects on your health, relationships, and daily responsibilities.

Potential Risks of Excessive Gaming

- Disruption of sleep patterns and fatigue
- Neglect of personal relationships, work, or academic responsibilities
- Physical health issues including eye strain, headaches, and repetitive stress injuries
- Reduced physical activity and associated health concerns
- Social isolation or withdrawal from real-world activities
- Financial problems related to in-game purchases or neglected obligations

We Encourage Healthy Gaming Habits

- Take regular breaks of at least 10-15 minutes every hour
- Maintain a balanced schedule with time for physical activity, social interaction, and other responsibilities
- Set reasonable time limits for gaming sessions
- Be mindful of your spending on in-game purchases
- Monitor children's gaming time and content

Support and Resources

- We provide resources and information to help users make informed decisions about their gaming habits.
- Our support team is available to assist users who may have concerns about their gaming behavior or who require further assistance with self-exclusion.

- We encourage users to reach out for support if they feel they are experiencing gaming-related issues or if they need guidance on setting limits.

Seek Help If Needed

If you or someone you know is experiencing difficulty controlling gaming habits, or if gaming is interfering with daily life, relationships, or well-being, please consider reaching out to a mental health professional or contacting a gaming addiction support resource.

Remember: Gaming should enhance your life, not replace it.

Conclusion

At Supersize, we take our responsibility to promote responsible gaming seriously. By implementing robust policies and providing support resources, we aim to create a safe and enjoyable gaming environment for all our users. We are committed to fostering transparency, accountability, and trust in our gaming platform, and we encourage our users to join us in prioritizing responsible gaming practices.

Supersize acknowledges that participation in real-money, skill-based gaming and prize-based contests may, for some individuals, develop into compulsive play that causes financial, emotional, or interpersonal harm. By using Supersize, you confirm that you meet the legal age requirement in your jurisdiction, accept these risks, and will play only with funds you can afford to lose. Supersize makes no representation that its products are free from risk of addictive behavior. Self-exclusion and other responsible gaming tools are available at any time.
