WE VALUE YOUR PRIVACY

Supersize, Inc. (“Supersize,” “we,” “us,” or “our”) values your privacy. This Privacy Policy (“Policy”) explains how we collect, use, and share certain information or data regarding your use of https://www.slimecoin.io/ (the “Website”), mobile application (together with the Website, the “Platform”) and related services (collectively, the “Services”). This Policy is incorporated by reference into our Terms and Conditions (“Terms”).

Any information you provide through your use of the Services is subject to the terms of this Policy, as may be updated by Supersize from time to time. Please read this Policy carefully before using and/or accessing the Services. This Privacy Policy does not apply to any third-party websites, services, providers, or applications, even if such are available or accessible through our Services. By continuing to use the Service, you agree to the terms of this Policy. If you do not agree with this Policy, please do not use or access Services.

In this Policy, unless specifically defined herein, any capitalized terms have the meanings given to them in our Terms.

WHAT TYPE OF DATA WE COLLECT

When you register an account, Supersize may request and/or collect the following information:

- Your name;
- Your email address;
- Your username;
- Your phone number;
- Your date of birth;
- Your mailing address;
- Your location;
- Identity verification information (including, but not limited to, biometric data); and/or
- Any other information you submit as part of the account registration process

You agree that all information you provide in using the Services shall be accurate, complete, and up-to-date. It shall be your sole responsibility to update any and all information provided for use of the Services.

Interactions with the Platform may result in the automatic collection of the following limited data (“Data”):

- Public Blockchain Data: When you connect your non-custodial blockchain wallet to the Platform, we may capture and record your publicly visible blockchain address. This allows us to analyze engagement and conduct wallet screening for potential prior illicit activity using insights from reputable blockchain analytics firms. Blockchain addresses are inherently public and are generated independently; neither we nor any central authority creates or assigns them, and they do not inherently identify individuals.
- Data from Third-Party Sources: To fulfill legal requirements and mitigate fraud or illicit use of the Services, we may engage third-party service providers who may obtain details about your wallet address or Service-related transactions.
- Survey and Usability Data: If you participate in a survey or usability study, we may document biographical details you voluntarily share (such as your name, email address, or job title), your responses, and your engagement.
- Communications Data: We may retain messages or details you submit directly through the Services, email, social media, or other channels, including responses from surveys or questionnaires.
- Voluntarily Provided Information: If you choose to share specific details, such as your email address, we may use them solely for the purposes described at the time of submission.

- Tracking Data: We or third parties on our behalf may collect information used for tracking and/or other business purposes, including: (i) your browser information, (ii) your operating system, (iii) your IP address, (iv) your device and/or usage data, and/or (v) information regarding your use of the Services (e.g., pages viewed, the amount of time spent on particular pages, purchase history, transaction data, etc.).
- Cookies and Similar Technologies: We may collect information through automated means such as cookies, web beacons, and web server logs. By using the Service, you consent to the placement and use of cookies, beacons, and similar technologies in accordance with this Policy.
- Aggregated Personal Data: We may also aggregate, anonymize or de-identify information collected via your use of the Services or other means so that the information cannot, on its own, personally identify you. We may share this aggregated and/or de-identified data with our affiliates, agents and business partners. We may also disclose aggregated and/or de-identified user statistics and other metrics related to our Services in order to describe our products or services to current and prospective business partners and to other third parties for other lawful purposes.

HOW WE USE THE DATA WE COLLECT

- Verifying your eligibility to use the Services and/or otherwise identify you as an account owner.
- Responding to User Submissions and/or customer support requests.
- Providing, maintaining, customizing, and improving the Services and their features.
- Alerting Users to new products, content, and/or features.
- Sending promotion content and/or other marketing communications.
- Tracking User engagement.
- Understanding and analyzing usage trends and improving the Service.
- Protecting against, investigating, and stopping fraudulent, unauthorized, or illegal activity.
- Addressing security risks, resolving bugs or other security issues, and protecting users and the Services.
- Complying with applicable state and/or federal legal and regulatory requirements.
- Enforcing the Terms and other legal rights.

We may also use information provided by you for reasons for which we have a legitimate business interest, such as direct marketing, research, or any other purpose disclosed to you at the time you provide information or with your consent. In all cases, the type of information collected and the purposes listed above are necessary for our legitimate business interests including, without limitation, to develop our products and services, grow our business, study how Users use our Services, and/or inform our marketing strategy.

WHEN AND WITH WHOM WE SHARE THE DATA WE COLLECT

We do not rent, sell, or share your Data and/or other personally identifiable information you provide via use of the Services with third parties except as described in this Policy. We may share your Data with the following:

- Service providers that assist with Platform hosting, data analysis, search engine providers, email delivery, and/or other services that support the provision, delivery, and improvement of the Services.
- Advertisers and/or advertising networks that require the Data to select and serve relevant advertisements to you and/or others. We do not disclose personally identifiable information about individuals to our advertisers, but we may provide them with de-identified and/or aggregated information about our Users.
- Potential or actual acquirers, successors, assignees, or other entities in connection with any reorganization, merger, sale, joint venture, assignment, transfer, disposition, bankruptcy, or similar proceeding. You acknowledge and agree that we have no control over how such information may be treated, transferred, or protected by such third parties in such instance.
- Governmental, regulatory, law enforcement, or other authorities when required by law, legal process, subpoena, court order, or other valid legal procedure, or when we believe disclosure is appropriate to protect our rights, operations, Users, or others.
- Our accountants, attorneys, and/or other professional advisors who owe a duty of confidentiality to Supersize, or as otherwise required by applicable KYC regulations and/or other third party obligations imposed upon us relating to your use of the Services.
- Parties involved in litigation, regulatory proceedings, compliance measures, or dispute resolution where disclosure is reasonably necessary.
- Third parties where we believe sharing is necessary to prevent harm to the Services, its Users, or others, or to enforce our agreements and policies (including, the Terms).
- Third parties assisting with fraud prevention, security, unauthorized activity detection, bug resolution, or protection of the Services.
- Any other party when you provide your consent.

ANALYTICS

We may use third-party analytics vendors to evaluate and provide us with information about use of the Service. These analytics providers may set and access their own cookies, pixel tags, and similar technologies on the Service, and they may otherwise collect or have access to data about you over time and across different websites. For example, we may use Google Analytics to collect and process certain analytics data. Google provides additional privacy options through its own published privacy materials.

We may also use and disclose aggregate data that does not identify and cannot reasonably be linked to an individual for any lawful purpose, unless prohibited by applicable law.

THIRD-PARTY SERVICES AND SITES

We may display third-party content, and/or otherwise incorporate third-party technologies or features into certain aspects of the Services, such as hyperlinks to external websites, platforms, or resources that are not owned or managed by us (“Third Party Services”) on the Service. Third Party Services may use cookies, web beacons, or other mechanisms to obtain data in connection with your viewing of or interaction with that content.

This Policy does not apply to information disclosed to and/or otherwise collected by Third Party Services. If you engage with Third Party Services, you acknowledge that you are doing so at your own risk. Third Party Services may independently gather data about you and request additional information. To understand data practices of such Third Party Services, please review the privacy policies and terms applicable to those third parties. We cannot control and are not responsible for data collected and processed by Third Party Services, their safekeeping of such data, any breach involving such data, or their compliance with applicable privacy laws or regulations. We encourage you to review the privacy policy of any third party you interact with and to use your own judgment.

HOW WE PROTECT YOUR DATA

You should be aware that there is always some risk involved in transmitting data over the internet. wallets, and cryptographic keys. You acknowledge that no transmission of data over the internet is completely secure. While we strive to protect your Data, we cannot ensure or warrant the security or privacy of data or other content you transmit using the Service, and you do so at your own risk.

We implement and maintain reasonable administrative, physical, and technical safeguards designed to protect Data from loss, theft, misuse, unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, and destruction. Nevertheless, internet transmission is not completely secure, and we cannot guarantee the security of Data or any other information you may provide. You are responsible for all activity on the Platform, including the security of your blockchain addresses, cryptocurrency wallets, and cryptographic keys.

You agree that we may communicate with you electronically regarding security, privacy, and/or administrative issues regarding your use of the Services. If we learn of a security system's breach, we shall notify you electronically by posting a notice on the Platform or sending an email to the email associated with your account.

ACCESSING, MODIFYING, OR DELETING YOUR DATA

You can access and update certain Data and/or other information that Supersize holds about you by logging into your account. You can modify and/or update your information on the Platform, or request changes by emailing us at support@supersize.gg. You may request deletion of certain personal information maintained by us, and we will make all reasonable efforts to honor your request. Please note that we may be legally required to keep certain information for a certain period of time (in which case we will comply with your deletion request only after we have fulfilled such requirements). Deletion requests may be made on the Platform, or by emailing us at support@supersize.gg.

HOW LONG WE KEEP YOUR DATA

We will retain your Data for as long as necessary to provide the Services and as necessary to comply with our legal obligations, resolve disputes, and enforce our policies. Retention periods will be determined based on the type of Data collected, the purpose for which it was collected, applicable legal requirements, and the need to delete outdated or unused Data within a reasonable time.

RIGHT TO OPT OUT

We may send you marketing communications or emails that contain information about our products and services, or information about upcoming features. You may opt out of receiving such notifications by making necessary changes as made available via your account. You can also unsubscribe from such communications by emailing us at support@supersize.gg. Notwithstanding, you will not be able to opt-out of certain administrative communications regarding the Services, including, without limitation, communications regarding updates to our Terms or this Policy.

YOUR PRIVACY RIGHTS

The following rights may be exercised directly by you or, in certain cases, through an authorized agent:

- You have the right to request information about the categories and sources of information we collect, our purposes for collecting the information, and how it is used. Details about our data collection, use and third-party disclosures can be found in this Policy. In addition, you have the right to request a copy of your Data and/or other information you provides via the Services.

- You have the right to request that we correct and/or delete some or all of the personal information that we have about you, subject to certain exceptions (i.e. information used to provide the Services, honor opt-outs, prevent fraud, spam and/or other abuse, comply with our legal obligations, cooperate with law enforcement, and/or exercise and defend our rights).

- You have the right to opt out of the sale of your personal information, and to request information about whether we have sold your personal information in the past twelve (12) months. We do not sell Data or personal information. Should such change, we will notify users and provide an ability to opt out as required.

- You have the right to request that we limit use and disclosure of your Data and/or other personal information to uses necessary to provide the Services, comply with legal obligations, or as otherwise permitted by applicable law(s).

You may contact us at support@supersize.gg to exercise any of the rights mentioned above. In order to respond to your request(s), we must be able to verify your identity as the owner of the account and/or information you are inquiring about. We may verify identity by confirming that you are the owner of the email address associated with the account to which the personal information is associated. An authorized agent submitting a request on your behalf must also have access to the email address associated with the account, along with sufficient evidence (as determined in our sole discretion) that you have authorized that person to submit the request on your behalf. We will not discriminate against anyone because they exercise any rights herein.

NO USE OF SERVICES BY MINORS

The Services are intended for adults and are not directed to children. We do not knowingly collect Data, as defined under applicable law including the U.S. Children's Online Privacy Protection Act ("COPPA"), from individuals under 18 years of age (or the age of majority in the jurisdiction from which you access the Services). If you are under the age of 18 (or the age of majority in the jurisdiction from which you access the Services), please do not submit any information through the Services. If we become aware that we have collected personal information from individuals under the age of 18 (or the age of majority in the jurisdiction from which such individual accesses the Services), we will take reasonable steps to delete it as soon as practicable.

CROSS-BORDER DATA TRANSFERS

Your Data may be transferred to, stored in, and processed in countries other than your country of residence. By using the Service, you consent to the transfer of Data to countries that may have data protection rules different from those of your country.

GOVERNING LAW

This Policy shall be construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, without regard to any conflict of law provisions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Policy, and the collection of information hereunder, shall comply with all relevant data protection provisions, including, without limitation, the Data Protection Act, General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the California Consumer Privacy Act ("CCPA") (as amended by the California Privacy Rights Act (“CPRA”), the Virginia Consumer Data Protection Act ("VCDPA"), and/or any other applicable act or regulation governing our use and/or collection of your personal information.

Any dispute regarding the terms of this Policy shall be resolved in accordance with the terms of the “Dispute Resolution (Arbitration),” set forth in the Terms

UPDATES TO THIS PRIVACY POLICY

We may update this Policy from time to time. If we make material changes, we may notify you through the Service. We encourage you to review this Policy periodically to stay informed about our privacy practices. By continuing to access or use the Service after revisions become effective, you agree to the updated Policy.
