Onchain real money gaming

Real money games have lost player trust

Sameer

★☆☆☆☆ 5/2/26

The real issue is the "Wall." The minimum withdrawal amount is $10, but the app seems designed to make sure you never get there.

PROFILE

Free-to-play currency and gamified rakeback system, collateralized by protocol fees

Hourly claim based on weekly volume

Convert Slime into USDC through play

Play-to-mine token emitted from USDC gameplay volume with supply-linked halvings

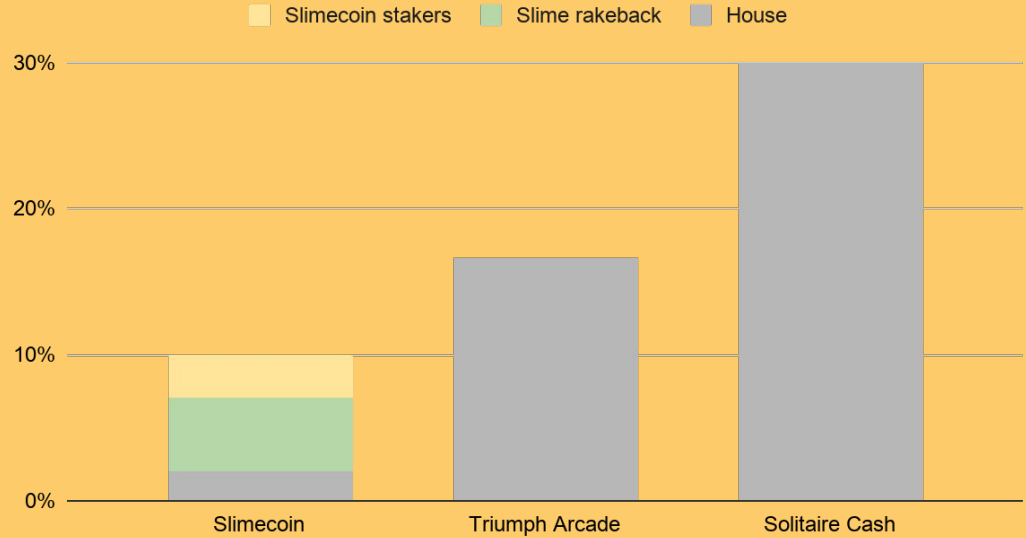

FEES

The protocol takes a 10% fee on every match, the lowest in the industry:

2% goes to the house,
3% to Slimecoin stakers,
5% to Slime rakeback

Slimecoin fees vs. top incumbents

TECH

The protocol runs on MagicBlock and settles on Solana

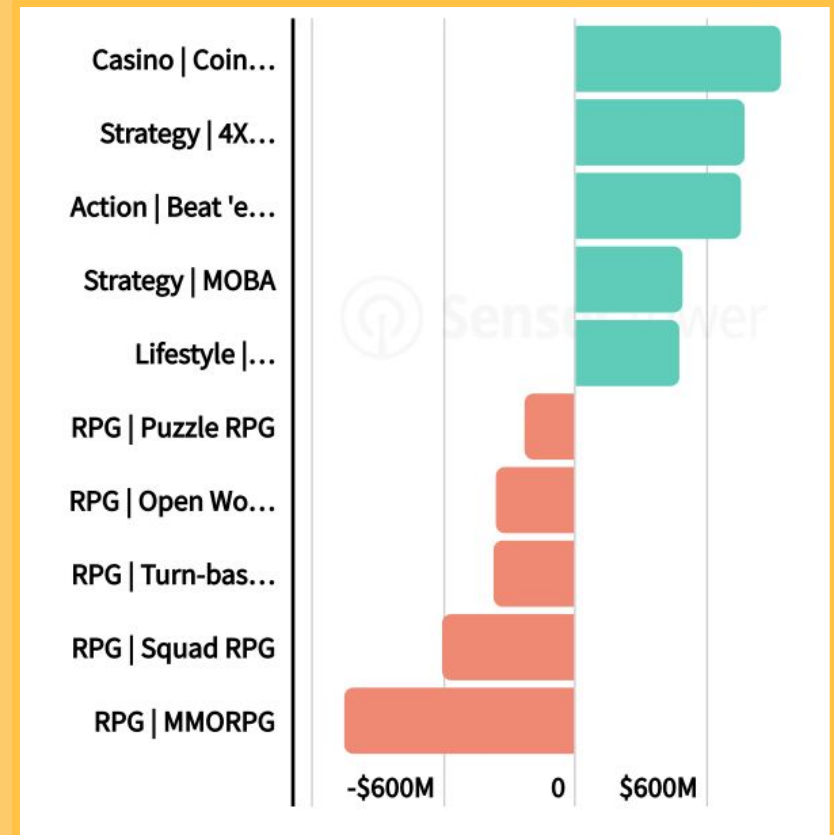

Our non-custodial & zero-server architecture eliminates legacy overhead of traditional real money gaming

OPPORTUNITY

Real money games are a $13B market

An app that puts fairness first and shares revenue with players can eat market share

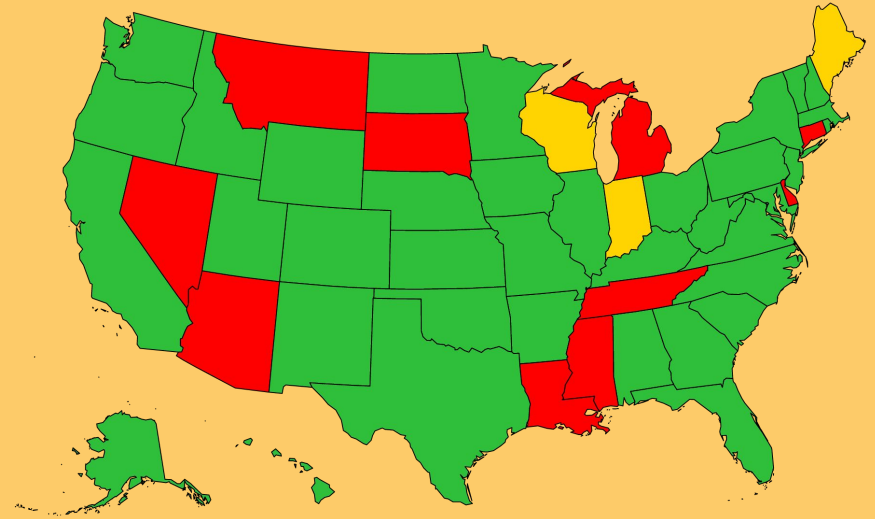

YoY IAP Revenue Growth

LEGAL

Real money skill games are not gambling and are legal in 40 states and most countries.

Our shared-seed randomness engine guarantees that matched players always compete under identical game conditions.
